Hi Chris,

Thank you for pointing this out. Apologies that I did not spot this before!

The scale for the existing roof plan on the drawing number 140040-04 should be 1:100 scale, however the floor plan and elevations are the correct scale. Would you like me to ask the architect to amend the plan so the roof is showing at 1:50?

Regards,
Sam

Hi Sam

A further query. The scale provided on some of the existing roof plan appears to be inaccurate, plans state that this is 1:50, but is half the size of the other 1:50 floor and roof plans. It looks to me as though this should be labelled 1:100.

Please can you confirm the correct scale of this plan.

Regards
Chris
