Thank you for consulting Historic England on this application for Listed Building Consent. Historic England are content, with reference to this application, to defer to your own specialist conservation advisors, although we will be commenting on archaeological issues relating to the Hadrian's Wall Vallum in response to the main planning application for the development proposed here. If you have any queries about this, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Yours sincerely

Mike Collins

Inspector of Ancient Monuments (Hadrian's Wall)
