Dear Jay,

Further to our discussion regarding the above proposal I can confirm that I have no objection to it. The information presented gives a thorough assessment of the heritage implications of the proposal - one of the best Heritage Statements I've read.

One comment, which is more relevant to landscape, is the consideration of landscape change (i.e. potential removal of conifer blocks) which might affect the views to/of the proposal. The limited below ground impact of the proposal welcome in an area of high cultural and heritage significance.

Kind regards,

Chris
